Positive interferon gamma release assays (IGRAs) are only reportable by laboratories that use electronic reporting (ELR).

Complete Board of Health rules can be found at: https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/cdphe/regulations-adopted-board-health

Immediate reporting by phone of any illness that may be caused by biological, chemical or radiologic terrorism.

If an isolate is not available, material containing the infectious organism for which submission of material is required, in the following order of preference: (A) a patient specimen; (B) nucleic acid; or (C) other laboratory material.

As indicated below, reporting by labs (diagnostic results and those highly correlated with disease) and providers (including suspected conditions) is required in accordance with Regulation 6 CCR 1009-1. In addition to reporting positive laboratory results to public health, clinical laboratories are required to submit isolates and/or clinical material to the CDPHE laboratory for select pathogens. For all other pathogens, isolate/clinical material submission may be requested.
