SJBPH Community Guidelines for Social Media

SJBPH manages a variety of social media channels and strives to create informative, engaging, supportive communities where we can share information and have conversations.

We’ll do our best to talk candidly about the topics that are important to you, listen to your feedback, answer your questions and be transparent about sharing information and providing our perspective.

Please bear in mind that the comments and responses that you read on our channels that are not posted by us come from members of the public. The content of these comments (including opinions and statements) posted on our channels do not necessarily reflect the views of San Juan Basin Public Health, and are the responsibility of the individuals posting them.

If you post to one of our social media channels, or otherwise respond or comment on one of our posts, you are agreeing to abide by these Community Guidelines:

1) Stay On Topic and Be Respectful

First and foremost, we ask that everyone show respect for other members of our social media communities.

We encourage and welcome your comments and feedback, provided that you share your viewpoint in a way that is respectful to us and our community, and is not inappropriate, off-topic, abusive, harassing, profane, or promoting/soliciting third-party sites, initiatives or products.

We reserve the right to reject or remove comments that are not in keeping with our policy and to block or ban users/followers who violate this policy.

2) Comment Moderation and Response

Users may disagree with an idea; however, they must be respectful of others at all times. Insults, threats or harassment of other users, organizations or employees are prohibited.

SJBPH will not tolerate and reserves its right to delete - to the full extent that each respective social media platform allows - any post or comment that:

• Are defamatory, indecent, hateful, racist, xenophobic, homophobic, sexist, disgraceful, vulgar or inappropriate.

• Encourage or suggest illegal activity, announcements from labor or political organizations and unintelligible or irrelevant posts.

• Information that is false, inaccurate or misleading.
• Text, pictures or images that could be described as obscene, profane, lewd, crude, vulgar, offensive, provocative or pornographic, or as containing gang signs or symbols, gun imagery, political or religious propaganda, derogatory characterizations of any ethnic, racial, sexual or religious group, depictions of alcohol or drug abuse, or promotion of illegal activity of any kind.

By posting, you are promising us that your post complies with these Guidelines and doesn't contain any of the restricted content listed above. Please note, however, that we may remove any post that we believe does not so comply.
